GENERAL INFORMATION for Service Learning Community Partners

Dear Agency Supervisor:

The student who has presented you with this form is enrolled in one or more classes at Loyola University New Orleans that offers them an opportunity to engage with the community as part of their academic coursework. It is our intention that our students not only LEARN from this experience, but also make a real and valuable contribution to your organization's work and mission. The service learning experience offers students a chance to apply and deepen their understanding of class concepts, learn about social justice, and examine the relevance of class topics in the real world. As a participant in the education of college students, you are a co-educator and a member of the Loyola learning community. Below you will find expectations and guidelines for your role as a co-educator and service learning site for this semester.

Expectations for service learning site for a Loyola University New Orleans student are:

- Designate primary and backup supervisors for SL student(s).
- Receive and adhere to all communications.
- Orient students to Agency, its policies and procedures, including attendance, dress, behavior
- Ensure that Agency's pre-service requirements are completed in a timely and efficient manner;
- Set regular service schedules with SL students;
- Provide clear and sufficient task and assignments to students;
- Provide sufficient training and instruction for students to perform and function well, develop skills, and effectively respond to the Agency's needs;
- Monitor students' progress;
- Provide verbal and/or written feedback to students as necessary;
- Communicate regularly with students and Loyola;
- E-verify timesheets or designate other Agency staff in this responsibility;
- Submit written performance evaluations or designating/instructing other Agency staff in this responsibility;
- Notify Loyola about students in need of intervention, correction, or termination.

The Agency agrees to:

- adhere to all local, state, and federal guidelines and mandates pertaining to safe operations and healthy environments for all service learners and service learning work.
- promote healthy hygiene behavior
- provide training and directions for safe contact with community members
- notify the service learning student(s) and OCELTS of any exposure to virus, communicable or infectious disease

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Indemnification

Agency shall be responsible for damages caused by the negligence of its directors, officers, agents, employees and duly authorized volunteers occurring in the performance of this agreement. Loyola shall be responsible for damages caused by the negligence of its directors, officers or employees occurring in the performance of this agreement. It is the intention of Agency and Loyola that the provision of this paragraph be interpreted to impose on each party responsibility for the negligence of their respective directors, officers, employees and duly authorized volunteers.

At all times during this agreement, Agency shall comply with the terms of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 in all respects.

Length of Agreement

Loyola and Agency have reached this agreement for the semester term indicated.

Termination

The Service Learning agreement may be terminated in whole or in part in writing by Loyola for its convenience, provided that Agency is given not less than thirty (30) days written notice (delivered by certified mail, return receipt requested) of intent to terminate. This MOU may also be terminated in whole or in part in writing by Agency, provided that Loyola is given not less than thirty (30) days written notice (delivered by certified mail, return receipt requested) of intent to terminate.

Entire Agreement

This agreement constitutes the entire agreement and understanding of the parties and supersedes all prior agreements, arrangements, and understandings with respect thereto. No representation, promise, inducement, or statement of intention has been made by any party hereto that is not embodied herein, and no party shall be bound by or liable for any alleged representation, promise, inducement, or statement not set forth herein.

I certify that I am duly authorized to enter this agreement on behalf of my institution.

As a partner in educating Loyola students, we look to you to introduce, expose, and engage students in real-world experiences. We recognize our community partners as co-educators who share in the teaching experience. Additionally, you are experts with the population you serve and help develop civic-minded adults through the service learning experience. As a service learning placement agency, your role is to provide students with a student-friendly and flexible environment with regular supervision, training, orientation, and evaluation that are conducive to a positive service experience.

As a co-educator of Loyola service learning students, we ask that you:

- Recognize this as an opportunity for the student to learn from your experiences
- Expose students to “real life” issues and allow them to assist in finding solutions
- Review the Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) sent to you by OCELTS, give special attention to the “Supervisory Expectations and Responsibilities” outlined in part 3 of the MOU, and then return the MOU signed by the agency signatory.
- Send a formal offer to student and OCELTS with expectations and anticipated tasks for position.

As an agency supervisor of Loyola service learning students, you have the right to:

- Require students to fulfill ALL the requirements and expectations of non-student interns/volunteers, including minimum commitments that exceed those required by the students’ classes;
- Terminate student if they violates the standards set by your organization;
- Refuse to document/approve student hours that are incomplete or conducted in an inappropriate or unprofessional manner;
- Contact students’ course instructors and/or the Office of Community Engaged Learning, Teaching and Scholarship (OCELTS) staff at any time to clarify students’ roles, expectations, and learning outcomes in connection with this experience.
